

THE EXTENDED MIND IN ACTION

Expert led CPDL for School Leaders - exclusively provided by Inspiring Leaders

The Extended Mind In Action, written by Oliver Caviglioli, Emma Turner and David Goodwin is based on the work and research of award winning science writer, Annie Murphy Paul. Following a successful pilot in 2022, Inspiring Leaders are delighted to share a CPDL programme designed for current school leaders to further explore how the broader research around how learning and thinking happen, can widen points of access to intellectual activity.

Using a rich evidence base from cognitive science, neuroscience, and psychology, this CPDL will broaden your understanding of human cognition and identify how this can be applied to enhance teaching and learning in your setting.

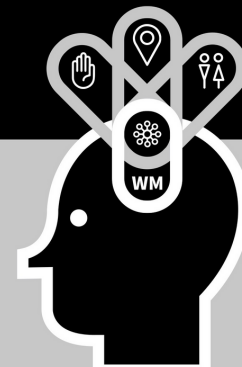

This CPDL is offered as 3 full days, with all sessions taking place at our training base 2a Vickery Way, Chilwell, Nottingham, NG9 6RY
Session dates:
23rd January, 28th February & 22nd March 2023
